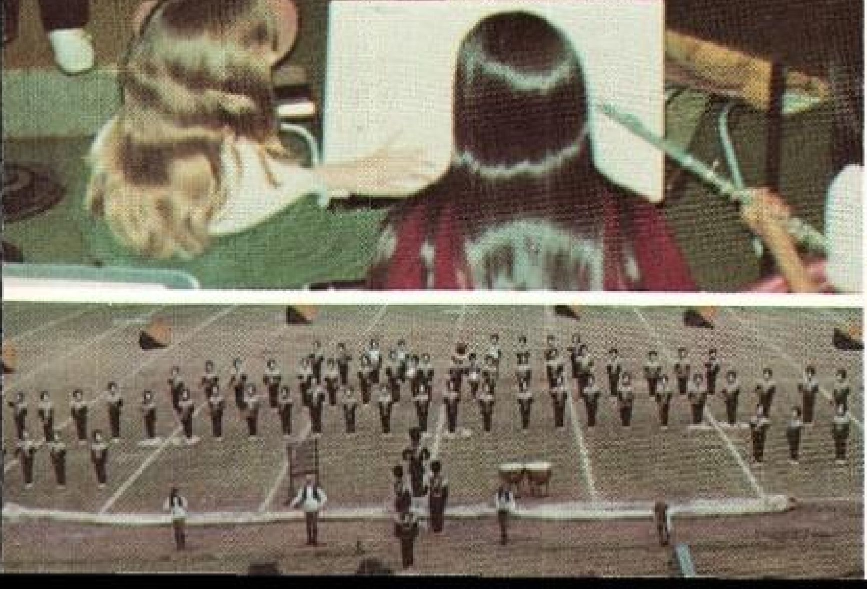
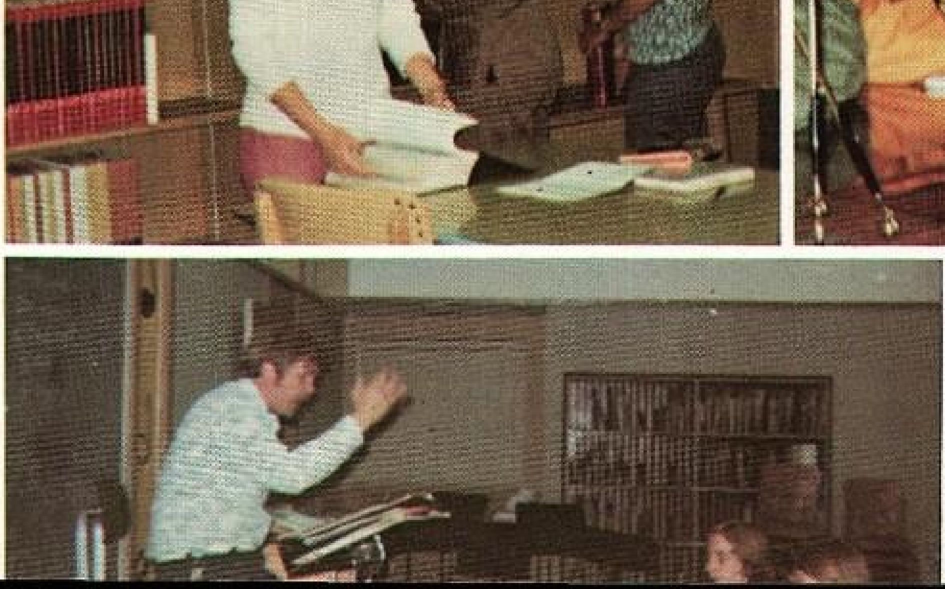
ROI-TAN





Foreword

The Class of '74 leaves this memory book of our last year in Jayton High hoping it will help you to relive many treasured moments experienced in this, "The Year of the Super Jays!" We have tried to capture the bustle of the football games, the fast pace of basketball, the tension of track, the glamour of banquets, and the mixed emotions of graduation. And we wish to the underclassmen all the joy, happiness, and success that we, as seniors, have had . . . .

Dedication

The Class of '74 dedicates this annual to our friend, Mr. Ed Hilton, in warm appreciation of his willingness to lend a helping hand. For every play, banquet, and concession stand, Ed has been there, willing to aid us in any way. We will always remember his pleasant smile, his quick efficiency, and his great attitude. This is our way of saying thanks to a really super guy.

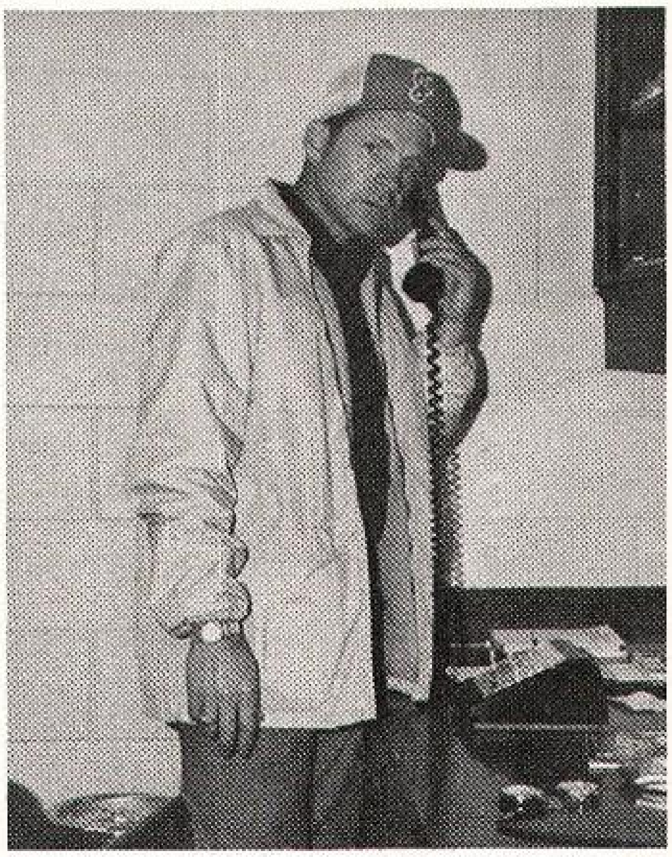
Coach Heard, you've got Leggs!

Go bite a bug!

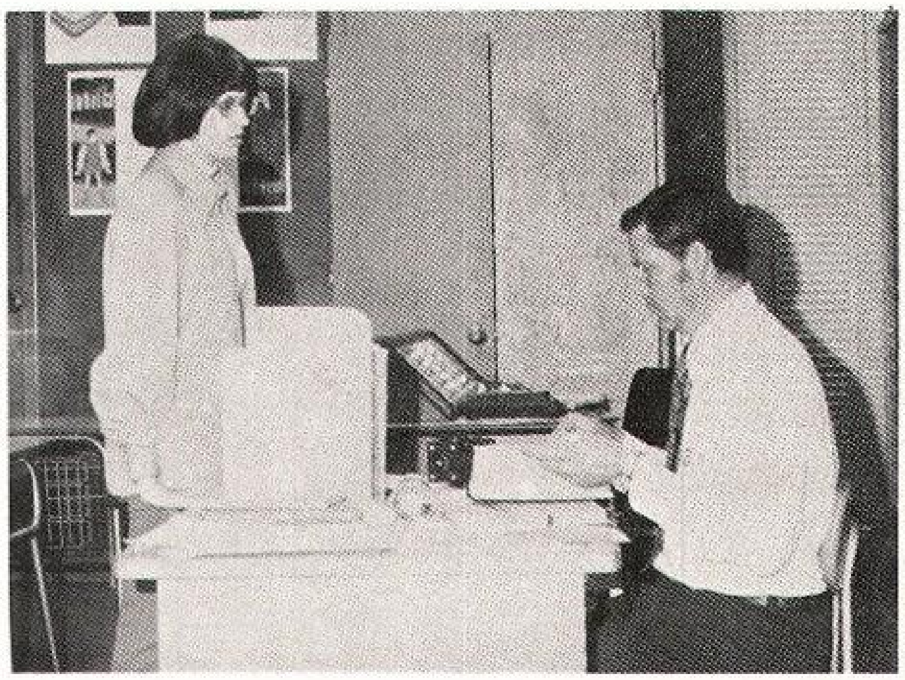
Show me the way to go home.

I feel so good in my 18 hour girdle.

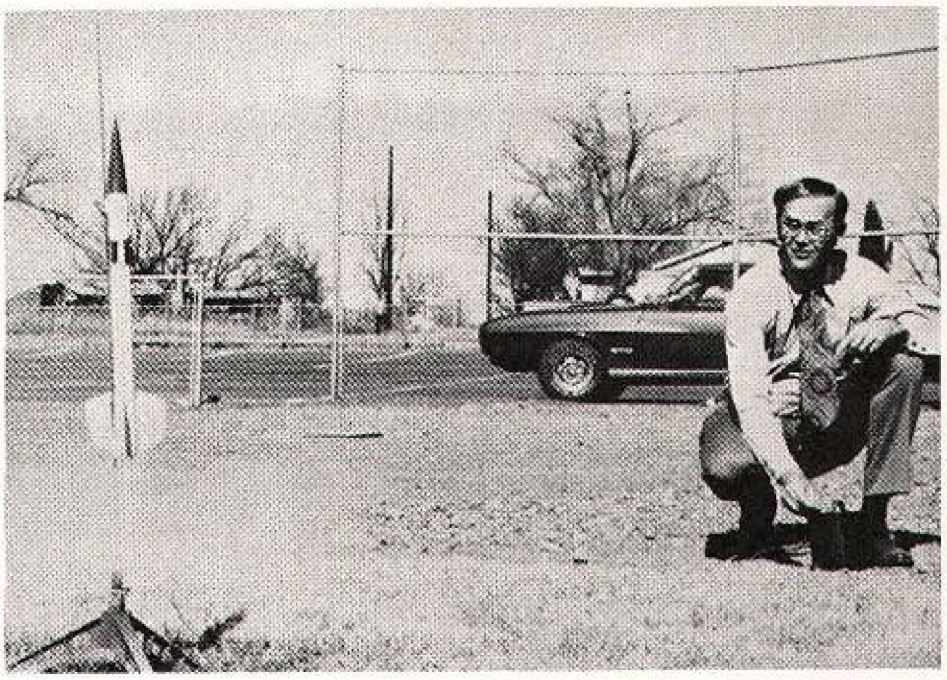


Another one of those obscene phone calls.

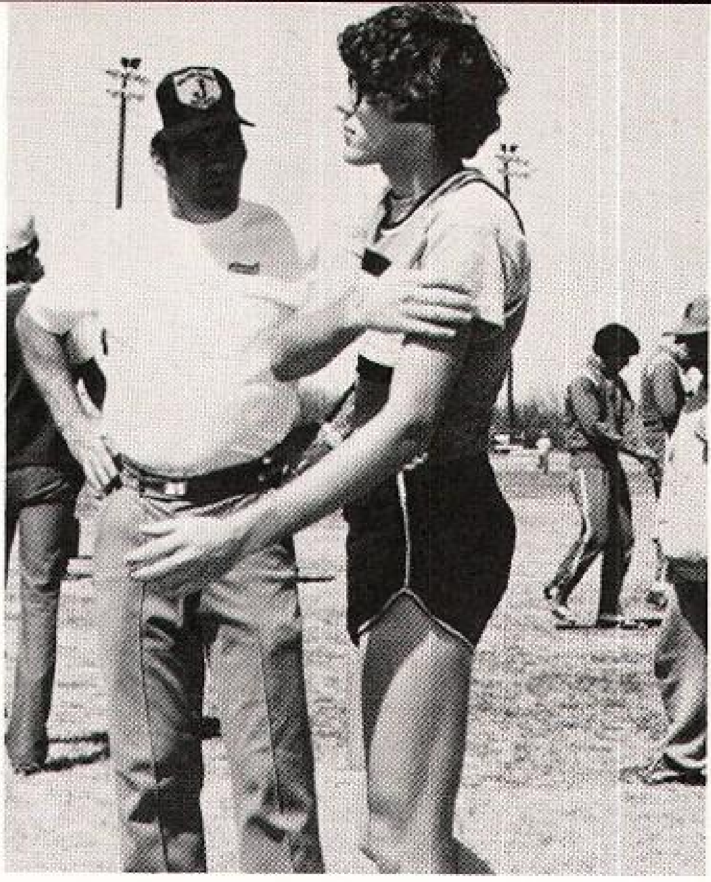
But Bob, Mother never told me about Ultra-Brite



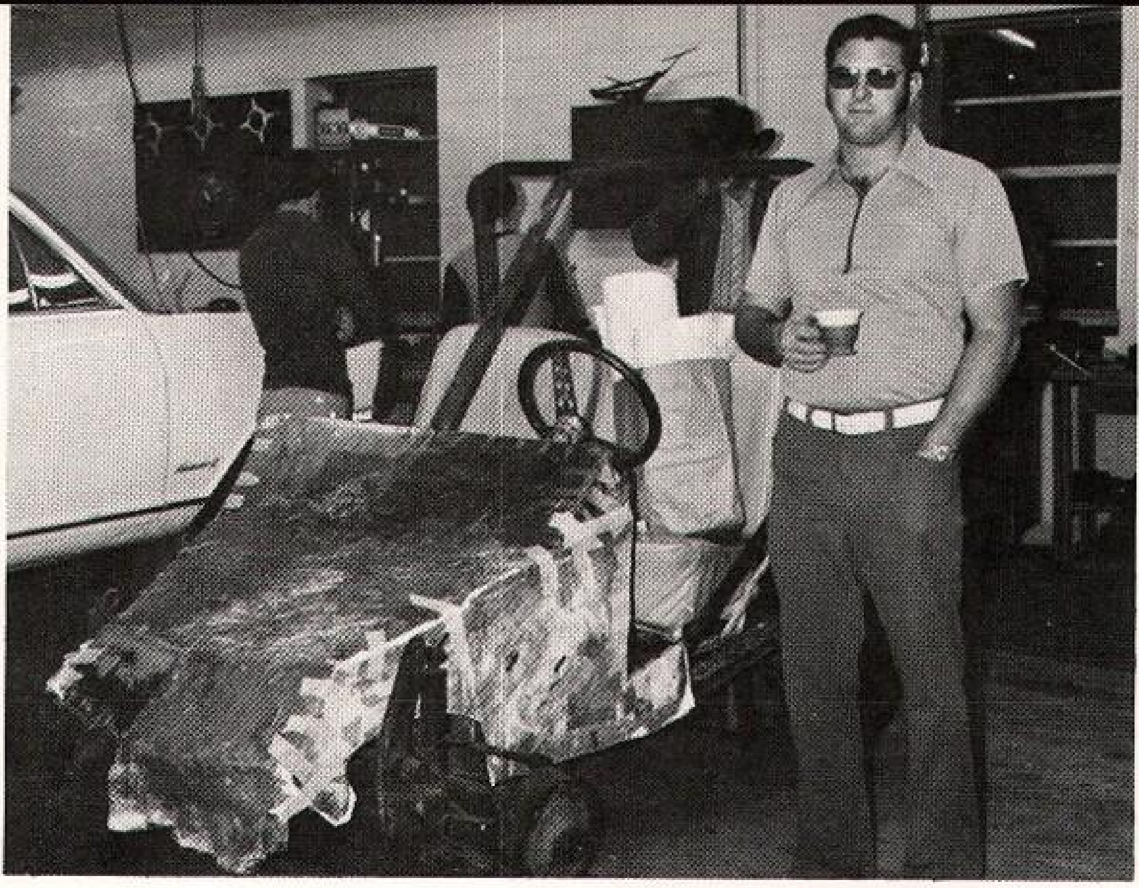
Mr. Harris, Alka Seltzer will take the pain out of your class.



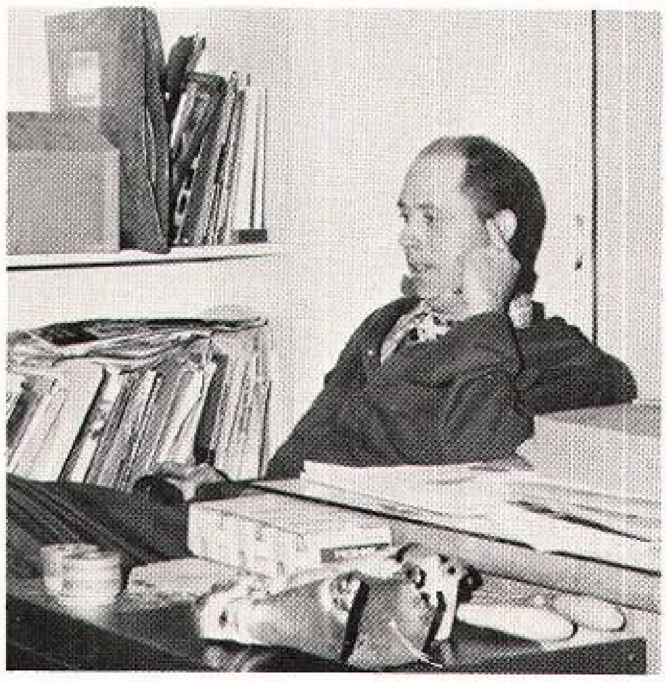
Oh goodie! My favorite play toy!



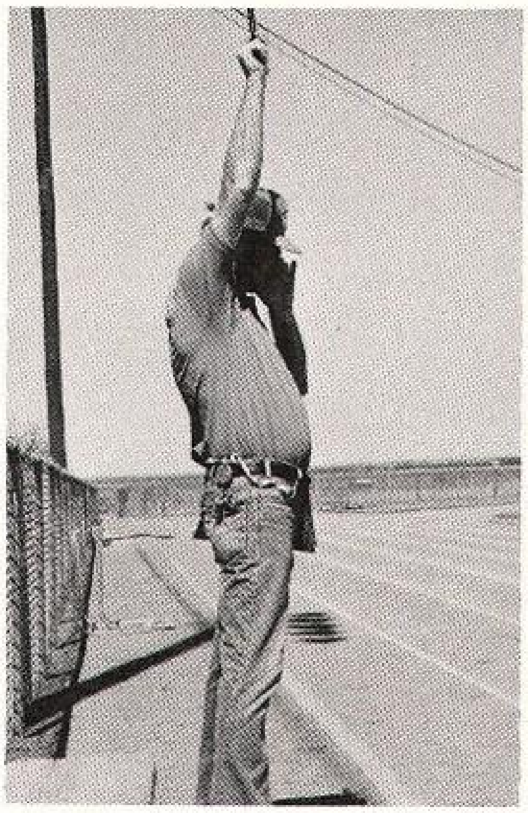
Son, I told you to eat your Wheaties.



Well, here I am, being my usual busy self.



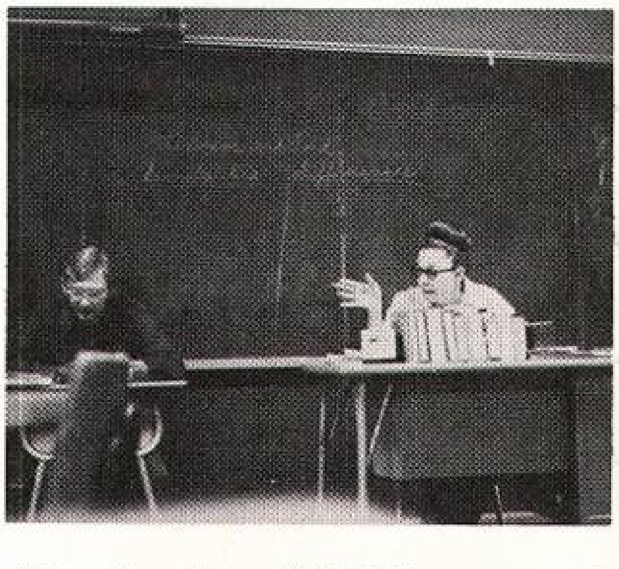
I'm so happy! I fell good all under!



Whoops, Forgot to get under the dome.

This pornography is disgusting!

Class, it's not nice to fool Mother Nature



You Seniors MUST grow up!

I hate to say this, but you need Scope.

I've got bad news! I dropped the stick on the other side.

Oh no! Some idiot stuck a hurdle in my way!

Wait up Baker. You have a hole in your pants!

A little prayer never hurt anybody!

Only an idiot would run these hurdles!

This is so simple, we do it with our eyes closed!

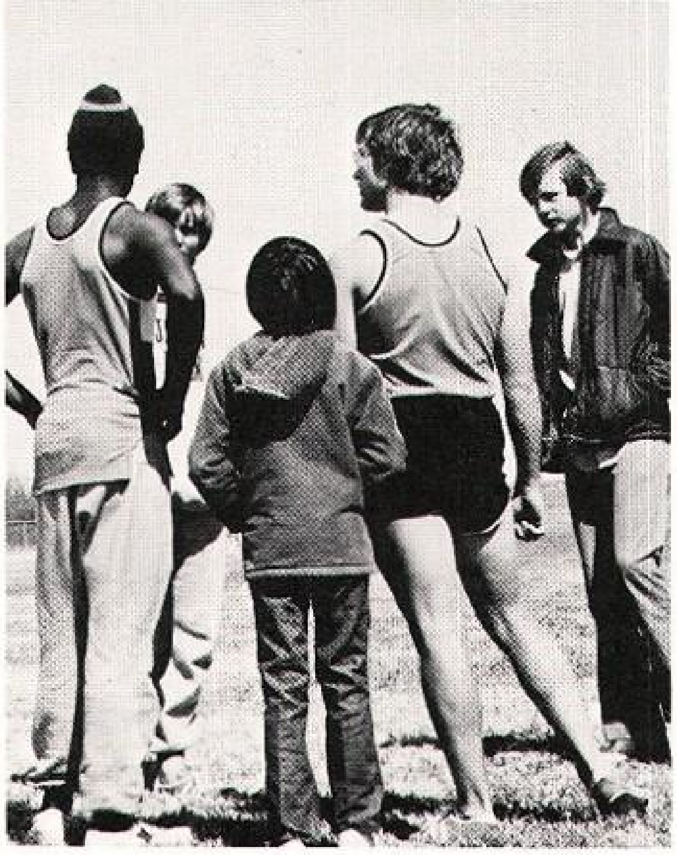
I'll be ahead in the next picture:

See, I told you so!

. . . able to leap TALL hurdles with a single bound!

Bullet Bob does it again!

I bet Jayton wins this race!



When I grow up, I hope I'm as fast as you guys.

Hey, look out for that string.

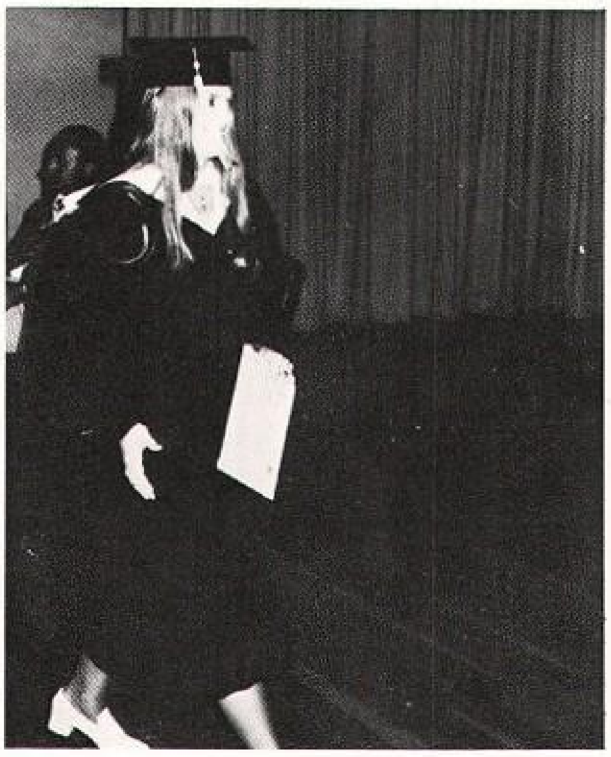
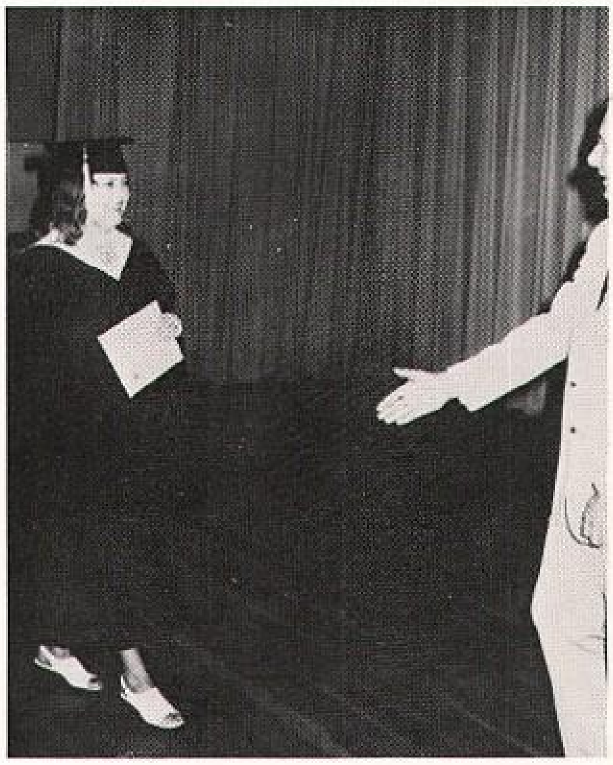
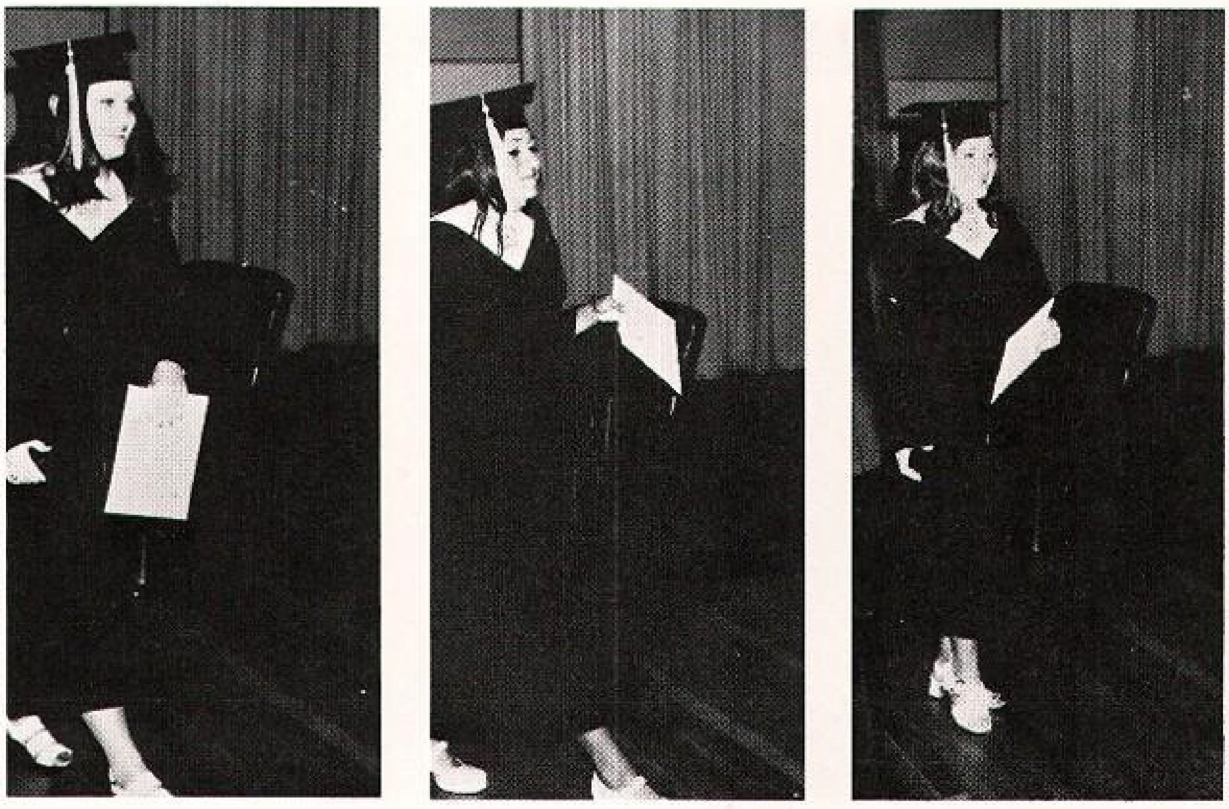
Seniors proceed to recede.

Seniors Receive Diplomas and Are Congratulated by the Administration







Happiness!

Juniors anticipate next year.

We, the Seniors of 1974, will always remember the four years spent in JHS. We have gone through tests, competition, freshmen initiation, senior trip, and FUN! We have learned to reach for the sky and to accept defeat when it comes our way. We will set our goals high in life's game and expect the best to come forth. As we commit ourselves to different things in life, we will always remember the one commitment which matters most, our commitment to Jesus Christ. FOR WITHOUT HIM WE ARE NOTHING.

We will carry with us fond memories and treasured moments of days spent in Jayton High. And to each of you, we would like to wish the best.
